Pray/give thanks

Amsterdam Chaplaincy: Pray for the continuing work on a new Chaplaincy Constitution, and please pray most of all that it enables us to undertake the mission of Christ in this city.

St. Mary's Rotterdam: Please pray for us as we enter a time of prayerful strategic planning for the future of the church and mission in our city.

St. John and St. Philip, The Hague: Pray for rest and refreshment for staff members taking time off this month. Also for wedding preparations being planned for those getting married in our church in 2018.

EU Institutions: Please pray for the restarting of the Chapel for Europe and its associated ministries. 2018 will prove to be an interesting year, so please pray for God's provision and presence this year.

Anglican Church Freiburg: Pray for the clergy of the Anglican Church in Basel gathering in Freiburg as part of our fellowship and educational event. Also for safety for people travelling over the holidays.

St. Clements, Prague: Please pray for God's guidance and discerning power to His people as they will be appointing a permanent Chaplain in the month of January.

Christ Church, Naples: Pray for rest at the beginning of January after an exhausting, but seemingly successful, Christmas season. That seeds sown and contacts made over Christmas would bear fruit, and for the preparations for doing 'The Purpose Driven Life' through Lent, that many people will enthusiastically sign up for this.

Holy Trinity, Corfu: Give thanks to The Lord for the amazing ways that he has provided for us in his mission in 2017. This new year, we pray for provision and equipping of labourers so that we may make the most of every opportunity. We give thanks for Jim Perryman, ICS Seasonal Mission Manager, preparing to visit. We continue to pray for 'A New Generation'. Also for Lisa and Sunday School preparation plans and for those involved in admin and advertising as we seek to increase our contacts.

Aquitaine Chaplaincy: Preparations for the Local Annual Meetings to be held in our churches in the coming months, as we report on the past year and pray and prepare for the year ahead.

Christ Church, Brittany: Thanks for the appointment of Robin Adams as Chaplain. He and his wife Donna will be joining us at Christ Church in February 2018. Prayer for renewed commitment by the three church centres to outreach and evangelism during 2018.

St. Luke's, Fontainebleau: We pray for God's blessing on the recruitment process for a permanent Chaplain here, and pray too for other chaplaincies in the Diocese who are also seeking to recruit. We enjoy good fellowship in our ecumenical relationships with our sister churches in the town and pray for our worship together during the week of Christian Unity.

St. Michael's, Paris: For the appointment process of our next Chaplain, the advertisement will appear in the church press this month. Pray too for the life and mission of St. Michael's to thrive and grow during the current vacancy, giving thanks for the many new contacts made over the Christmas season that they may bear fruit for the Kingdom. For wise stewardship and generous giving in 2018.

St. Mark's, Versailles: Please pray for our continued search for a Chaplain and Revd Canon John Smith and his wife who are coming as locum towards the end of January.

St. John's, Maadi: Pray for our new discipling and ministry leadership programme and for the visit of The Rt. Revd John Chew of Singapore. Also for sustained and growing interest in our children and adults' choirs.

Christ Church, Rio de Janeiro: We have had a wonderful Advent season, beginning to see the fruit that God's word produces in people's lives. January is a quiet month, but we will be gearing up for the church weekend away in February. Please pray for a great sign-up from the whole church family. Also pray for quick resolution to our need for more space for ministry on our site, which is an ongoing discussion with our fellow site users.

Bush Church Aid Society: Pray for The Revd Ted Brush, who is commencing as Regional Officer for NSW/ACT on 15 January, and for the rest of the Senior Officer team as they plan for the rest of 2018.
