

Chaplaincy of Aquitaine

Action points from Chaplaincy Council on 25th September 2018

Discipleship and Giving

During October, the church in Bordeaux are holding a series of four special services focusing on discipleship and stewardship to raise the awareness of Chaplaincy finances and to encourage giving. The aim is for this idea to be rolled out across that Chaplaincy and each centre is asked to discuss ideas at their next Committee meetings and to report back to the next Council meeting in November.

Women's Retreat 2019

Following the successful Women's Retreat in September, the Assistant Curate has been asked to arrange another retreat for 2019.

Electoral Roll

The Chaplain announced that Ian Jameson from Bertric Burée has volunteered to take on the role of Electoral Roll Officer and that forms for the renewal of the electoral roll will be sent out to centres at the end of October/beginning of November.

Communications

Council were asked to encourage people to look at the Archdeacon's and Bishop's websites and to subscribe to the Europe Link e-Newsletter. The link can be found on the right-hand side of the home page of the Diocese of Europe website (www.europe.anglican.org).

Safeguarding

The Chaplaincy Safeguarding Officer asked Council to ensure that anyone taking up a new role in any centre looks at the Safeguarding information and does the Safeguarding training. In addition, she announced that a Level 2 training course is to be held in Bordeaux in the next month or two.

AGM 2019

This is to be held in Monteton on Saturday 13th April 2019.

Next Council Meeting

The next Council meeting is to be held on Tuesday 27th November 2018 in Bergerac.

Maggie Lee
October 2018